ARC builds upon standard open source software. It implements innovative solutions essential for a production quality middleware: the Grid Manager, ARC GridFTP server, the Local Information Service (LIS) with the information model and providers, the Brokering Client, extended Resource Specification Language (ARSL), as well as the monitoring and logging systems. ARC provides Conventional and Smart Storage Elements as well.